Placed spectacularly on the cliffs of one of the best residential areas of the Costa Brava, Casa Blanca, the White House, is a truly unique design with infinite sea views.

The main house, a mid-century Bauhaus inspired property that is built into and hanging over the side of the cliff, was designed by the renowned Catalan architect and engineer Josep Maria Bosch Aymerich, and features warm wooden floors and solid rock walls that mix exquisitely with the modern and seamless floor-to-ceiling glass walls and balconies throughout for infinite panoramic views. The main family house is comprised of a living area with breath-taking sea views, an eat-in kitchen, the master bedroom with his and hers wardrobes and a private balcony, another en suite bedroom and one single bedroom with a separate bathroom, as well as various terraces.

The modern style outbuilding offers a sensational and generous chill-out area which can be completely opened onto the beautiful garden with its spectacular heated infinity pool. In this addition there is a complete guest apartment with a kitchen, four en suite bedrooms, an outdoor kitchen with a barbecue and dining area and shower facilities for the pool area.

The singularity of its architecture and unique location has also gained the attention of different audio-visual producers. Therefore, this "star residence" has been used as the backdrop to many commercials and photo shoots for some of the best known brands and actors in the world, like one starring the renowned Spanish actor Antonio Banderas.

Below the pool are two additional spaces: a cosy wine cellar that invites you in for a wine tasting and a stunning glass and completely equipped "floating" office that seems to hang over the cliff offering impressive sea views.

This property meets the highest standards and offers many exclusive and original features such as the outdoor cinema, a multi-room sound system with 43 speakers throughout the property (including under the water in the main pool), top-of-the-art home automation system, a panoramic elevator reaching all levels of the house, breath-taking viewpoints, private parking spaces directly beside the beach access, heated pool, water features, nocturnal lighting accentuating the architecture and much more...

Included in the price is Casa Roja, the Red House, the beautiful traditional Mediterranean guest house adjoining the Casa Blanca, but with private access, elevator and parking. This delightful house, overlooking the sea, has 5 en suite bedrooms, a fully equipped open-plan kitchen, dining and living area, as well as a guest toilet. The outdoor area is intimate and charming, with a wooden deck surrounding the pool with a waterfall and various terraces and eating areas.
